

PAINTING WATER

One Day Workshop with Todd Baxter

Oils or acrylics (Todd will be working in oil)

When: Saturday August 3, 2019

Time: 9 am to 4 pm (Doors open 9 AM to set up, class begins at 9:30)

Cost: SASi member $70 per student, Non-member $80

Ages: 16 and up Skill level: Beginner to Intermediate (prior experience with mixing colors and basic knowledge of painting)

Lunch: Bring your own - we will break 1 hour for lunch

Class Description: At this workshop our focus will be on painting water. In particular, water that is still and reflective. The calmer the water the sharper the reflection, while turbulent water might have no reflection at all. Todd will be providing the photo references for us to paint from.

Schedule:

9:00 coffee and set up
9:30 demo and begin instruction
10:30 students start a painting
12:30 to 1:30 lunch break
1:30 students continue painting
3:30 questions and critiques
4:00 end of workshop

Supply List: Bring your standard painting supplies for oil* or acrylic

- Tabletop easel (SASi has tabletop easels for your use or you may bring a floor easel if you prefer to stand.)
- Oil paints, medium/solvent*, brushes, palette, palette knife
- Hake Brush (about 3" wide)
- 11 x 14 inch canvas (stretched or panel) Tone your canvas with a warm earthtone like burnt sienna, keep it very light. You can use acrylic to tone if you like for a quick dry.
- Paper towels
- Charcoal or soft lead pencil
- Chocolate is also highly recommended.

Colors:

If you have a red, yellow, blue, white, yellow ochre and burnt sienna you are good to go. I will use additional colors. Feel free to go with the palette you are comfortable with.

If painting in oils, bring Gamsol Odorless Mineral Spirits or equivalent (nothing smelly!)
